"Synopsis The approach and key features of the 'Take Ten Years' series have been adapted to suit this book, which covers the reign of Queen Victoria from 1837 to 1901. A narrative style is used to describe the status quo, and to explain the legacy of Victorian Britain to the present day. Dramatic events at home and abroad are presented as newspaper reports, and eye-witness accounts bring the last century to life. 'Victorian Years' has been specifically prepared to meet the demands of the History National Curriculum Key Stage 2 core study, unit 3, Victorian Britain, and covers economic developments, public welfare, religion, scientific and cultural achievements and domestic life."
