Each Western story is paired by genre with a story from another part of the globe to make stories from other cultures relevant and accessible. This pairing function encourages students to compare texts and is therefore a valuable preparation for an important skill required at GCSE. There are three sections in the book, catering for Years 7, 8 and 9, making it suitable for all ages and abilities. This collection is accompanied by book activities and a free online scheme of work available to download soon. Also new in 2007: Level Up A collection of short stories and texts to engage all levels of ability. Find out more
