I love kimono (Japanese traditional garment).Kimono fabrics are frequently hand-made and decorated by using special techniques.Dyeing and applying decorations and patterns are mostly hand-made. Gorgeous hand-stitched garments can often determine which season it should be worn. Four seasons are commonly pictured on the fabrics of kimono. For example, the most popular kimono worn in spring has a design such as Cherry blossoms. Skilled craftsman use silk threadto stitch each and every pattern. So kimono fabric is considered as a very expensive fabric in Japan. "Kimonobana Interior" uses such antique fabrics to make a decorative furniture. Using a stunning decorative fabrics can be made into fabric covered wooden storage boxes, picture frames, tapestry and etc.Descriptions and directions are also included to make an easy tapestry.Kimono itself is art.I hope you enjoy the world of "Japanese Beauty".
