When Acting Lt. Jim Chee catches a Hopi poacher huddled over a butchered Navajo Tribal police officer, he has an open-and-shut case--until his former boss, Joe Leaphorn, blows it wide open. Now retired from the Navajo Tribal Police, Leaphorn has been hired to find a hot-headed female biologist hunting for the key to a virulent plague lurking in the Southwest. The scientist disappeared from the same area the same day the Navajo cop was murdered. Is she a suspect or another victim? And what about a report that a skinwalker--a Navajo witch--was seen at the same time and place too? For Leaphorn and Chee, the answers lie buried in a complicated knot of superstition and science, in a place where the worlds of native peoples and outside forces converge and collide.

The day that acting Lt Jim Chee of the Navajo Tribal Police is called to yells back butte by Officer Benny Kinsman only to find Hopi eagle poacher Robert Jano standing over Kinsman's bleeding body is the same day that Catherine Pollard a vector analyst from the Arizona Health Department vanishes from yells back along with
