"Críticas A wonderful gift for all ages....Indeed, here is a Pinocchio story of a man who loved his creations so much they came alive. In this book, they do. Reseña del editor Famous color woodcut printmaker Gustave Baumann was a superb wood-carver who was captivated by puppet theater. In the 1930s Baumann carved a collection of marionettes for plays he wrote about New Mexico's cultural heritage. Featuring twenty-five marionettes photographed from the permanent collection of the New Mexico Museum of Art, this entertaining book tells the story of Baumann's theater, describing in detail the plays, sets, and costuming, and highlights the extraordinary wood-carving artistry of this master. Biografía del autor Ellen Zieselman is curator of education at the Museum of Fine Arts in Santa Fe, New Mexico."
