1532. Francisco Pizarre et ses hommes traversent les Andes. La chute de l'Empire inca sera un épisode inaugural de notre conquête du monde. En faire le récit, c'est accompagner ces mercenaires qui cherchèrent fortune et gloire loin de chez eux dans une aventure violente et hasardeuse ; mais c'est aussi entendre le bruit que fait un monde qui s'écroule. Avec une puissance romanesque saisissante, Eric Vuillard montre comment cette épopée flamboyante et brutale ouvre une tragédie qui est la nôtre, et dans laquelle la mappemonde, Dieu, l'or et la poudre vont jouer les premiers rôles.

Puritan Conquistadors is an important book that deserves to be read by a broad audience. Specialists will appreciate the breadth of research and the detail that followed in the footsteps of these conquerors. The book isn't intended to dive deeply into each adventure, but the detail is more than adequate and certainly whetted my desire to learn more. I highly recommend this book. This is a very good summary of the period. Read more about this on Questia. conquistador k?nkws't?d?r Span k?ng k?'st?r military leader in the Spanish conquest of the New World in the 16th cent.
