Auf einer Anhöhe inmitten der rauen Landschaft des englischen Yorkshire liegt das Anwesen »Wuthering Heights«, dem Wind schutzlos ausgesetzt, der hier strenger als anderswo weht. Sein Besitzer, der herzensgute Mr Earnshaw, nimmt den Findling Heathcliff zu sich, in den Earnshaws Tochter Cathy sich bald schon heftig verliebt. Doch ihre Liebe endet im Unglück, und ein Gespinnst aus Verrat und Rache liegt fortan über dem Landgut. Emily Brontës einziger Roman, zuerst 1847 unter Pseudonym erschienen, gehört als eines der außergewöhnlichsten Werke des viktorianischen Zeitalters längst zum Kanon der Weltliteratur.
