"Über den Autor und weitere Mitwirkende Within the different collections of: Permanent, Studio, St. Pauls and the recent Study Collection ? Frama Studio operates in various creative fields and directions from Furniture, Lighting, Apothecary, Books, Apparel and Kitchens. They all have in common that they focus on natural materials, simple geometry and a general appreciation of permanency. The pieces within the collections signal a return to basics, where the design appearance aims to be honest and simplified. Working within the area of design archetypes, Frama represents a graphical and straight forward aesthetic approach to design. Besides offering the variety of the different Collections, the Frama practice offers complete Interior Management and develops site-specific design solutions and curate a sur- measure scenography in close collaboration with architects and users, from the starting idea until its final materialisation"
