"Synopsis Looking for eyecare information in one complete, pocketsize resource? Want to be able to find terms, concepts and the latest conditions at a glance? 'Quick Reference Dictionary of Eyecare Terminology' is the industry standard and is now available in an updated edition. New to this edition are over 3,300 terms (over 300 more than the last edition) and 24 appendices (3 more than the last edition). A wide range of prevalent eyecare topics have been updated, including information on ophthalmic drugs and websites directly related to eyecare. The new appendices include: Atlas of Ocular Anatomy Drawings; Troubleshooting Glasses Problems; and Optical Formulas. Some topics covered include: Acronyms and Abbreviations; Subjective Grading System; Systemic Disorders and Their Effects on the Eye; and Weights and Measures. Additionally, a cross-referencing feature is applied through out the 'Quick Reference Dictionary of Eyecare Terminology, '. Don't hesitate to add this to your office, medical library, or classroom today. Über den Autor und weitere Mitwirkende For over 25 years now,

Janice K. Ledford, COMT has been using her skills both in the ophthalmic exam room and on the printed page. While she is probably best known for her certification review books and editorship of The Basic Bookshelf for Eyecare Professionals, she is also a published novelist (search Jan Roadarmel Ledford on the Internet). She is currently employed as a fee-basis technologist with Dr. Charles Kirby as well as the Asheville Veterans Administration Eye Clinic. Jan has two sons, a daughter-in-law, and a granddaughter and grandson. She lives in Franklin, NC with her two cats. Joseph Hoffman has worked in medical publishing since 1985 and was the editor-in-chief of the Ocular Surgery News publication group from 1996 to 2001. He has won writing awards from the American Society of Business Publication Editors and Apex. He is currently the proprietor of Hoffman Health Care Communications."
