"Pressestimmen 'A major collection.'?Booklist 'The poets in this superb collection pay attention to the wonders of the natural world, the signs of precariousness of life in all living beings, the little changes that comprise each day, and the small details that are often missed by those who are less observant.'?Spirituality & Health

?These evocative poems capture the ephemera of nature with uncanny starkness.??Buddhadharma 'There is no need to be mystical or religious to enjoy this writing.'?The Bloomsbury Review 'This is a book to enrich our life and our practice, a collection that encourages us to be mindful, to keep at it. Read it, and sit.'?Tricycle Über den Autor und weitere Mitwirkende Sam Hamill has translated more than two dozen books from ancient Chinese, Japanese, Greek, Latin, and Estonian. He has published fourteen volumes of original poetry. He has been the recipient of fellowships from the National Endowment for the Arts, the Guggenheim Foundation, the Woodrow Wilson Foundation, and the Mellon Fund.
