"Pressestimmen Astutely observed, pacey fiction. The characters and observations are acute - and often a hoot. Nicole Kidman has already bought the film rights (Sunday Times)Original, suspenseful and laugh-out-loud funny. Nine Perfect Strangers is downright brilliant (Clare Mackintosh)Utter brilliance, with a twist halfway through that blew my mind (Marian Keyes)Another page-turning belter of a book . . . with wit, charm, emotion, drama and mystery aplenty, this is an absolute must (Heat)This wonderful novel had me utterly hooked (Daily Mail)A fantastic piece of entertainment . . . Read this witty and fast-moving novel now, before the inevitable TV series (The Times)I've discovered the brilliant Liane Moriarty and couldn't be happier. Her books really are the definition of unputdownable (Nina Stibbe)What a joy it is. I've never read Liane Moriarty before . . . I don't know what I was thinking. Brilliantly entertaining, tightly plotted. You're in for loads of fun (Sam Baker The Pool)From the delicious imagination of Big Little Lies' Liane Moriarty, Nine Perfect Strangers is the razor-sharp thriller of the autumn . . . Moriarty lands a very contemporary tale that bristles with her unmistakable brilliance (Waterstones)No one currently writes about the minutiae of women's lives with quite as much insight and pull as Moriarty and, once again, her slow-burn plotting leaves you gasping at the end of the tale. I am jealous of anyone who hasn't read this yet (Grazia)
