"Pressestimmen The most brilliant, hilarious book. My book of the year (India Knight)Funny, bloodcurdling and moving . . . this will make old boarding-school girls sigh with nostalgia, and everyone else sigh with relief at having avoided the experience (Daily Mail)A funny, vivid and excruciating book, which has left me filled with admiration for the brave, damaged survivors of this lost world (Virginia Nicholson The Times)If you think the St Trinian's films were fictitious, then this wonderful book will surely convince you that they were documentaries (Mail on Sunday)The girls' boarding school! What a ripe theme for the most observant verbal artist in our midst today - the absurdly underrated and undersung Ysenda Maxtone Graham, who has the beadiness and nosiness of the best investigative reporter, the wit of Jane Austen and a take on life which is like no one else's. This book has been my constant companion ever since it appeared a few months ago (A. N. Wilson Evening Standard)Sparklingly good (William Leith Evening Standard)This vivid, vivacious and poignant look at how boarding school life used to be is as engaging as it is educational (Eithne Farry Sunday Express) Werbetext In Terms & Conditions Ysenda speaks to members of a lost tribe - the Boarding-school Women, grandmothers now and the backbone of the nation, who look back on their experiences with a mixture of horror and humour.
