“He could have just killed Derrick. But he chose not to. Eric continued to deal with Derrick’s body because he wanted to, because he chose to, and most frighteningly of all, because he enjoyed it.”The killer is thirteen-years-old. His name is Eric Smith. His victim is four. "I have just met the Antichrist," says a family friend to his wife after meeting teen-killer Eric Smith for the first time. What is it about Eric Smith that gives people an uneasy feeling? Is it his unwavering stare? Is it his fiery temper that matches his thatch of red hair? Or is it his history of maiming and killing small animals? Did police officers stop an inherently evil serial killer in the making, or was Eric Smith, a child brought up in a household of physical and sexual abuse, just misunderstood? If you read true crime books by Ann Rule, Jack Rosewood or Kathryn Case, you will enjoy reading Kathryn McMaster's true murder stories.
