"Synopsis With his trademark porkpie hat, floppy shoes, and deadpan expression, Buster Keaton (1895-1966) is one of the most iconic stars of Hollywood's early years. His unique blend of elaborate sets, clever camerawork, and remarkable stunts, has ensured his films continue to appear on critics lists of all-time favourites. 'Buster Keaton: Interviews' brings together a superb collection of interviews from the beginning of his career in the 1920's to just before his death. They provide readers with an intimate and critical perspective on his films, acting, inspiration, and cinematic technique, as well as exploring his work in television during the 1950's and 60's. This volume will become an invaluable resource for anyone interested in one of cinema's first superstars. Klappentext Interviews with one of the most
