This is a true story of how the Bester family trekked by ox wagon from the Orange Free State in South Africa to help occupy the new country of Rhodesia with Cecil John Rhodes. A diary covering the events was kept by my aunt, Johanna Bester, who was a young girl at the time, Assegai re-tells the story of those events and of the hardships, heartaches and successes of the Bester family. The leader Mr B.H. Bester was my grandfather; in this book I have referred to him as Bester.
