A Moscou comme à Los Angeles, à Paris comme à Valparaiso, dans les mégapoles occidentales comme dans les plus petits villages de province, des hommes et des femmes, malgré deux mille ans de christianisme, se disent encore païens. Ils rendent un culte à Héra, à Wotan, à Perun, à Horus et à la multitude des autres dieux anciens. Ce BA-BA du néopaganisme leur est consacré. Le lecteur y découvrira les différentes familles de ce courant religieux : le druidisme, l'odinisme, la wicca, le pythagorisme et l'hellénisme, le néopaganisme d'origine égyptienne et, plus curieux, le judéo-paganisme. Il prendra la mesure de certaines spécificités nationales - en Allemagne, en Italie, en France, dans les pays de l'ex-bloc soviétique - qui ont fait éclore des variétés originales de néopaganisme. Enfin, il pourra s'interroger sur le néopaganisme comme phénomène sociologique et comprendre comment et pourquoi on devient néopaiën, quelles sont les pratiques religieuses de ce milieu, comment elles influent sur le mode de vie de ses membres, quelle est la place du néopaganisme dans les Nouveaux Mouvements Religieux. Au détour des pages, le lecteur aura rencontré des personnages célèbres, d'autres totalement inconnus, des savants renommés et des illuminés, des hommes de droite et des révolutionnaires de gauche, etc. Il pourra ainsi prendre conscience du fait que le néopaganisme est, à la fois, un et multiple et que le polythéisme attire autant de types humains différents qu'il y a de dieux.
