"Synopsis 'Walls That Wow!' is for anyone who dreams of adding a little personality to their rooms, perhaps by simply jazzing up a wall or two. In a very fun, and not-at-all-intimidating manner, this book presents imaginative and stylish wall treatments using unexpected materials, and not one drop of paint! Celebrity home decor artist, Jonathan Fong, ensures that everyone will come away from this book inspired and ready to redecorate. The book is divided into six sections: fabric, metal, special effects, paper, ideas that stick, your wall as art; and contains twenty-one step-by-step projects presented in twenty-one chapters. Each chapter/project will follow the following format: present general description of the particular wall treatment; a full-page colour photography of the wall in a room context; a checklist of materials the reader will need; step-by-step instructions, illustrated in colour photographs - helpful hints, set apart from the rest of the text in a special box; a 'level of ease' measure - as opposed to a level of difficulty measure - ranging from 1-5. The book also includes an appendix of resources, detailing where readers can purchase the materials for the various projects. This is a very crafty, very project-oriented decorating book showing that, with a little desire and inspiration, anyone can convert a humdrum room into a spectacular showcase of individual creativity. Über den Autor und weitere Mitwirkende Jonathan Fong, a vice president at Dailey Advertising, segued into interior design when his home was featured on the HGTV show Kitty Barholomew: You're Home. Demonstrating his unique wall treatments, he became an instant design celebrity. He lives in Santa Monica."
