"Reseña del editor Mother Bird tells her son stories of St. Francis of Assisi. If the animal kingdom can understand the life and teachings of the world's most famous saint, so can children, who will be delighted by this simple, beautiful book for the ages. ""Stunning illustrations and engaging text. This book is sure to spark valuable conversations."" -Fr. Pat McCloskey, OFM, Franciscan Editor, St. Anthony Messenger Nota de la solapa ?St. Francis could hear the voice of God, which told him that God loved him. Knowing he was loved by God filled Francis with gratitude and happiness. This book is a look at how this gratitude and happiness led Francis to treat his brother and sister creatures with respect. It offers a vision for the many ways that all of us, humans and other animals and all of Creation, are connected parts of God?s world. For the young children with whom you read this book, talking to animals and trees will probably make perfect sense. Here?s hoping you will encourage them to do so.? ?Phil Gallery Biografía del autor Phil Gallery is the author of four books in the ""Can You Find"" series that have sold more than 140,000 copies. All four won the Catholic Book Association's coveted Best Book Award. Three made the Catholic bestseller list, and Can You Find Jesus? reached the top of the list. He lives in the hills of eastern West Virginia, where he and his wife Shari raised their four children. Sibyl MacKenzie was born in Virginia, and has lived in England, China, and Germany. She studied Chinese watercolor painting under Hsiao Yu Hsien for five years. She graduated from Columbia University with a degree in German Literature and has exhibited in galleries all over the United States."
