"Pressestimmen 'A heavenly book. Mumble will move you to tears, mostly of laughter, as she flutters her way into your heart.' (Jilly Cooper)'Unlikely books are often very endearing - this is one such book. An utterly charming work, perhaps best read at night when there are owls about.' (Alexander McCall Smith)'An engaging, funny and beautifully told memoir.' (Choice Magazine)'Windrow describes the secret life of owls in a warm and highly readable style. A book to brighten up your day.' (The Lady)'Anyone who thinks the bond between man and dog or cat is the supreme human-house pet attachment will have to reconsider after reading Martin Windrow's touching account of the bird who changed his life, a possessive and characterful tawny owl named Mumble who was his domestic companion for 15 action-packed years.' (Liesl Schillinger The New York Times Book Review) Werbetext A moving and informative memoir of life with a lovable tawny owl. Alle Produktbeschreibungen"
