Milton and the Burden of Freedom examines the contradictions inherent in Milton's religious, political and ethical beliefs as expressed in his poems, prose writings and the treatise De Doctrina Christiana. Milton, whose writings are rooted in the Reformation, John Milton (9 December 1608 – 8 November 1674) was an English poet and intellectual who served as a civil servant for the Commonwealth of England under its Council of State and later under Oliver Cromwell. He wrote at a time of religious flux and political upheaval and is best known for his epic poem Paradise Lost (1667), written in blank verse. Milton's criticism often treats the poet as if he were the last of the Renaissance poets or a visionary prophet who remained misunderstood until he was read by the Romantics at the same time. Literary histories of the period often invoke a long eighteenth cen.
